

Radio Operation Quiz

1. True or False: Before transmitting, you should formulate what you are going to say.
2. True or False: The pro-word OVER is used at the end of a transmission to indicate that you do not require or expect a response from the other station.
3. True or False: PTT stands for Push To Talk.
4. True or False: Radios need communication towers in order to operate.
5. True or False: You need a license to operate using the Family Radio Service (FRS).
6. True or False: Saying, "Over and out," is proper use of pro-words.
7. What should you do if you receive a report that your voice sounds harsh and distorted?
 - a. Talk louder and hold the microphone closer to your mouth.
 - b. Turn the volume up on your radio.
 - c. Talk more quietly with the microphone a few inches from your mouth.
 - d. Turn the volume down on your radio.
8. Which of your radio's channels are you allowed to use Without a GMRS license?
 - a. 8-14
 - b. 4-12
 - c. 1-14
 - d. 15-22
9. When sending a radio message, should you first.
 - a. Address the person you are trying to talk to and then Identify yourself,
 - b. Identify yourself and then address the person you are trying to talk to.
 - c. Use the call alert function to send a ringtone.
10. When should you use the NATO Phonetic alphabet?
 - a. When spelling out a word.
 - b. Never.
 - c. For every single word you say.

Name: _____